

Side-event: Ethical Principles for Artificial Intelligence

Focusing on Education

In presence of Audrey Azoulay and the Dutch Minister of Education, Culture and Science

In Room IX from 1 to 2.30 PM. Lunch will be provided.

Opening

Introductory remarks by the Dutch Ambassador Hans Wesseling, Ingrid van Engelshoven the Dutch Minister of Education, Culture and Science and UNESCO's Assistant Director-General for Social and Human Sciences Nada Al-Nashif.

What are the ethics of AI and why do we need them?

Peter-Paul Verbeek is a professor of philosophy of technology at the Department of Philosophy at the University of Twente, the Netherlands. Verbeek is also Chairperson of COMEST (Committee on the Ethics of Science and Technology).

AI and education: what are the ethical challenges?

Inge Molenaar is assistant professor of Educational Sciences at the Radboud University Nijmegen, the Netherlands. She will discuss the link between AI and Education and explore possibilities for the North and the South.

Hans Wesseling

Ingrid van Engelshoven

Nada Al-Nashif

Peter-Paul Verbeek

Inge Molenaar

Use hashtag #HumanAI to ask the speakers a question